

I do not want Wisconsin no call list rules changed in any form of any kind. If I felt that I needed telemarketing calls from any bank or credit card company, I would not signed up for the no call list. The last thing I need in my already busy life is wasting time on the phone with a call that I didn't ask for or wanted.